

The Night Gardener

Singer-Songwriter / Alternative Folk

The Night Gardener is a singer-songwriter who plays guitar and piano, going from very quiet to very loud and back. His songs include good doses of escapism, idealism, compassion, heartbreak and hope.

After hitchhiking and busking all across Europe in his twenties, he is now busy making records in Berlin, Germany. His latest release “The Only Light I Know”, a live album recorded at a closed venue during the first pandemic year, is available on all streaming platforms and via Bandcamp.
